Iskul E-News | Urgent Call for Support

Dear <<First Name>> ,

Greetings from Iskul!

Just a heartbeat away from our last correspondence, where we informed you about our students' updates, we sincerely hope this message finds you well again. As we approach the festive season, we are reaching out with both gratitude and urgency, for we have exciting news to share and a critical request that aligns with the spirit of giving that defines this Christmas season.

First of all, we are very thrilled to share that Iskul has been selected to receive the prestigious Yayasan Hasanah Special Grant for 2024! This grant opens doors to even more possibilities for Iskul to keep running and growing. However, a crucial element is currently missing, putting a halt to fully securing the grant —the Kementerian Pendidikan Malaysia (KPM) permit. It was a condition given to Iskul during the pitching presentation, and without it, we are unable to proceed with signing the Yayasan Hasanah grant agreement.

Due to the delay in obtaining the permit, we find ourselves in a challenging situation. Yayasan Hasanah, understanding our commitment and potential, has graciously given us until April 2024 to obtain the necessary approvals and permits. Until then, we are in quite a tough spot in sustaining the operation of the school as we urgently need support for our day-to-day operations and student meals from January to April. We have made the difficult decision to temporarily reduce the students' daily meals from two to one to navigate the financial strain. We are trying our best to make sure that this adjustment is only temporary and does not significantly impact the well-being of our students. Your generous support here would make a significant difference during this critical period.

This Christmas, let's join hands to brighten the paths ahead for our students. Your generous contributions will not only sustain our operations during this challenging time but also ensure that the spark of education keeps shining in our students' lives.

Donate today, and be a part of the journey that transforms these challenges into triumphs. We at Iskul are wishing you and your loved ones a joyous and giving Christmas!
